Sunday Reflection

The Desires of the Heart When Lazarus died, Mary of Bethany must have been heartbroken. You can see why she would have been. She loved her brother Lazarus, and she trusted and loved Jesus. Like everybody else in her community, she knew that Jesus could heal sick people. So when her brother got sick and she knew that Jesus was nearby, she turned to him for help. Then she waited three desperate and increasingly miserable days. During those days Jesus didn't come, and Lazarus died.

And so she was devastated. Her beloved brother was dead, and her beloved Jesus seemed to have disregarded her entirely in her time of need. She must have felt sure that she had lost the desires of her heart and lost them irretrievably.

But what the story of the raising of Lazarus shows is that a person can feel sure about such things and still be altogether mistaken.

Mary wasn't entirely wrong. She had this much accurate insight into herself: she was right in thinking that it was her heart's desire to have her brother and to be loved by Jesus.

But she was mistaken about what the fulfillment of those desires would be. She thought that she could have the desires of her heart only in case Jesus came to her to heal her brother before he died. Consequently, when Lazarus did die, Mary thought that she had lost what she wanted most. What the story makes clear, though, is that the Lord can know better than a human person does what she most wants. We are not surprised if the Lord knows better than we do what is good for us, and we generally expect that good to be something we don't want. But in this story the Lord knows better than Mary what she herself wants.

When Jesus raises Lazarus from the dead, Mary has her brother, and is loved by Jesus in a way more deeply fulfilling to her and more glorious than the mere healing of her brother in his sickness would have been.

And here is the thing to notice Jesus was in the process of giving her what she wanted most even as she was firmly persuaded that she had lost it forever.

And so, the story helps us see that the Lord can be trusted even with the deepest distress of the hearts of those who are his own. As the Psalmist promises (Ps 37:4), the Lord will give the desires of their hearts to those who put their trust in him.

Pastor's Corner

The Scrutinies - What are They and Why They Are Important at the 10:30 Mass

If you are a cradle Catholic sitting in the pew for the 10:30 am. Mass during the third, fourth, and fifth Sundays of Lent, and the Welcoming Church members join you at mass, you are present for "the Scrutinies", whether you realize it or not. What are they, and why are they important for all of us during this Lenten season of repentance and renewal?

The Scrutinies are three special rites that help prepare those adults preparing for the Easter sacraments. They take place during the period of Purification and Enlightenment, near the end of their formation.

The season of Lent involves a more intense period of examination and preparation for the Elect, and hopefully for those of us already living the Catholic faith. Though they are meant for those coming into the church at Easter, they can help all Catholics seeking to live a life of continuous conversion.

The Woman at the well: Thirsting for the Lord.

The Man born blind: To see the light of Jesus.

Lazarus: Made free from the bonds of sin/death.

We pray for those going through the welcoming process of coming to know the Lord:

Daniel Martinez and Roit Banger will be baptized, receiving the fullness of the Holy Spirit, and the Holy Eucharist.

Richard Miller will come to full communion with the Church (he was baptized but not Roman Catholic). He will receive the fullness of the Holy Spirit and receive the Holy Eucharist.

Stephanie Rodriguez will receive the Holy Eucharist and be confirmed by the Bishop later.

James Reynolds will also be confirmed by the Bishop at a later time.

These people have sponsors to assist them in their journey and to guide their progress to come to know the Lord. We thank these sponsors for saying "Yes": Bill Yates, Genaro Mendosa, Fred Adam, Lyn Cramer and Evelyn Estrella.

Photos of our elect and candidates are in the vestibule along with their sponsors

The Easter mailing will be going out this week.

Flowers for Easter. A list will go out on Palm Sunday for those who want to make a donation of $10 for the flowers. You must bring the money with you to keep things simple. We will have Easter lilies, Calla lilies, and Oriental lilies. There is a place on the sign-up list to put the name or a couple's name who have died. Their names will be offered up on Easter.

Pope Francis Jesus "emptied himself, taking the form of a servant" Let us allow these words of the Apostle Paul to lead us into these holy days, when the word of God, like a refrain, presents Jesus as servant: on Holy Thursday, he is portrayed as the servant who washes the feet of his disciples; on Good Friday, he is presented as the suffering and victorious servant and we will hear the prophecy of Isaiah about him: "Behold my servant, whom I uphold" God saved us by serving us. We often think we are the ones who serve God. No, he is the one who freely chose to serve us, for he loved us first. It is difficult to love and not be loved in return. And it is even more difficult to serve if we do not let ourselves be served by God.

But how did the Lord serve us? By giving his life for us. We are dear to him; we cost him dearly.
